EJO Society/Abbey Chronicle

Catalogue of items for Sale—Autumn 2021

The order form on the back shows our current prices, and page 2 shows the overseas postage rates, which sadly we have had to increase in the current situation.

We now have so many titles we cannot continue to show pictures of them all without needing more pages in the order form, so will just show the latest two or three publications on the front page, and list the rest inside with only a few pictured.

Please use the order form on the back page of this catalogue, or email ejo.orders@gmail.com to send your order to our Merchandise Officer, Barbara Willingham. There is a box on the order form to tick if you are a member and therefore eligible for free postage in the UK, or to buy the 'members only' items.

You will shortly be able to go to our website—ejosociety.org—to order.

Members should go to the Member Area for the Members only items and prices.

 NB orders of 5 or more books count as trade/bulk orders**

Daring Doranne—£15.00 (plus P&P for non-members) Available Sept/Oct 2021

Doranne is called from her career-girl life in London to take care of an elderly aunt in Sussex. There is a mystery next door, but her aunt is as much a mystery to them! This title mentions characters from other books in the Rainbows' series.

The School of Ups and Downs—£15.00 (plus P&P for non-members)

Includes characters from A School Camp Fire but is the true first in the Woody Dean series. Set during the Great War, it tells how Libby and Tibby come to terms not only with a new home and a new school—but that they are very different in character from each other.

Elsa Puts Things Right—£15.00 (plus P&P for non-members)

Despite its title, this book is really about Nancybell and her newfound family. Elsa herself is nonetheless crucial to the plot, and Nancybell's future is assured.

Titles by Elsie J Oxenham already reprinted
